This is fine. They will work fine as a backsplash. When can I pick them up? I have a 2:30 appt today.

Would you send a pic of the thickness? Maybe next to a dime?

Yes,
I have worked with copper colored metal tiles from Amazon but real copper would be nice. 94 tiles are about 10 square ft. They might weigh about 3 lbs so worth about $10 just as scrap. I would pay $30 for the tile. You are about 37 minutes away so not too bad.

Thanks,

Ellen

I was wondering where you are located. I am in northern Arvada so it might be a ways to drive.

Thanks,
